CONNECTING COMPANIES WITH INVESTORS

Foreword by Michael Corcoran, Partner at Hill Dickinson

In 2020/2021 the world encountered a pandemic that turned the global economy on its head. Now we are faced with War in Ukraine, a global supply-chain disaster, a doomed "zero covid" policy in China, a cost-of-living crisis with inflation expected to exceed >10%, and angry Trade Unions threatening a Summer of discontent. We could really do with catching a break!

And against that back-drop we don't hear about the great businesses, the entrepreneurs, the startups, the capital investment and the growth and employment that SMEs deliver every year for the UK economy. The 2022 Small Cap Awards are a great opportunity to celebrate the successes of small listed companies, businesses navigating the difficult (often impossible) market conditions, raising capital, doing deals, growing and innovating, using the disruption as an opportunity to win market share from some of their slower, larger rivals.

Hill Dickinson's corporate and banking teams worked on deals totalling more than £1 billion in the first half of 2022. Great businesses being bought and sold, completing a listing or raising secondary capital, securing pre-IPO funding, or PE or VC backing. Money makes the World go round and we want to work with the best fast-growth companies in the UK to help them reach their potential.

The Small Cap Awards celebrate the success of the very best professionals and companies within the AIM and AQSE sub-£350m market cap quoted company sector. We are therefore delighted to be sponsoring the event this year and extend our congratulations to all of the finalists this evening on your achievement in getting this far and wish you all good luck.

Awards Host - Peter Dickson, Voiceover Man

Peter Dickson is the UK's most prolific voiceover artist. He has enjoyed a stellar career spanning almost 40 years.

His unique and powerful vocal delivery is the choice of global TV entertainment mogul Simon Cowell. His voice has featured on "Britain's Got Talent" and "The X Factor" in the UK. In a national poll, he was voted as one of the top three iconic UK voices of the decade.

Peter Dickson Voiceover Man

Guest Speaker - Claer Barrett

The Consumer Editor at the Financial Times and host of their Money Clinic podcast, Claer Barrett has vast knowledge of finance and consumer issues. From economic overviews to personal finance, consumerism to digitalisation, she makes everything she covers accessible and relevant. She considers finance sociologically and explores how it intersects with global issues such as mental health and the gender gap.

Claer Barrett Consumer Editor. Financial Times

Guest Speaker - Dr. Michele Afif

Before being appointed CEO, Michele was one of Rays of Sunshine's trusted medical advisors almost since its inception and has a real love, understanding and passion for the charity.

An NHS paediatrician by background, Michele worked for 10 years as a consultant with a special interest in paediatric oncology and haemoglobinopathy, before retraining in medical law.

Michele came to Rays after five years as a medicolegal consultant at the Medical Protection Society, during which time she has worked to assist doctors in difficulty. Throughout she has maintained her connection with clinical practice and the care of unwell children.

Rays Ar Sunshine

Rays of Sunshine Children's Charity brightens the lives of seriously ill children and their families across the U.K. We do this by granting magical wishes, fulfilling hospital ward wishes and hosting hospital activity days.

Granting magical wishes

Whether a child wants to be a princess or fireman for the day, go to Disneyland in Paris, visit Santa in Lapland, own an iPad, meet a favourite celebrity or even a 'real-life' mermaid, Rays of Sunshine works hard to make that wish come true.

Hospital Activity Days

We bring sunshine to children on the wards of hospitals across the UK through entertainment and imaginative arts and crafts.

Hospital Ward Wishes

These wishes benefit thousands of patients each year and have included decorating treatment rooms, funding sensory rooms and opening an indoor sensory garden.

Making a difference

"We'll never ever be able to thank you enough for what you did for Daniel, what you did for all of us. You're as important to us as the surgeon who saved his life, the oncologist who keeps him well, the radiologist who monitors him and the nurses who care for him"
