Address: Trident Royalties 6th Floor, 60 Gracechurch Street, London, EC3V 0HR

Company Profile:

Trident Royalties is a fast-growing diversified mining royalty company listed on the AIM and the US OTCQB markets. Trident provides investors with exposure to the full breadth of the mining sector (excluding thermal coal). Its portfolio includes precious, base and battery metals, and bulk/industrial minerals, across assets which are either in advanced development or in production, across the globe.

Its attractive commodity mix, which provides exposure to the energy transition and a strong macro environment, also offers investors with a natural inflation hedge whilst insulating shareholders from rising operating and capital costs.

The transition to electric vehicles has required accelerated development of lithium resources and Trident has capitalised on this shift acquiring three lithium royalties, including 1.05% gross revenue royalty over the Thacker Pass Lithium Project, the largest lithium resource in North America. The portfolio also provides exposure to copper and silver, both metals utilised in the EV industry.

Trident, led by a global management team with significant mining private equity, banking, operational, and commodity markets experience, has an extensive pipeline of future opportunities as the company looks to accelerate deal flow. The Company has delivered shareholder returns of 120% since inception and is targeting mid-teen post-tax returns on its expanding portfolio, whilst reducing Trident's cost of capital.
